

SCHOOLS' CLUB

Supported by the Dr Mortimer and Theresa Sackler Foundation

THE PROJECT

Schools' Club is for schools and teachers. As a Schools' Club member you receive free tickets to each production of the 2011/12 season, workshops in your school, resource packs, backstage tours, additional training with expert arts educators, plus many other exciting opportunities.

Schools are asked to select up to 30 students who they think will enjoy working with The Old Vic and Old Vic New Voices for a whole year. The students selected can be a mixture of Years 9-13 or an existing class. The one thing they should have in common is a love of drama. In return you'll get all of the benefits listed below.

WHAT WE ARE OFFERING

- FREE tickets to each production of The Old Vic season
- FREE bespoke production related workshops (for Years 9-13) taking place in your school and fitting into your timetable
- Regular engagement with expert arts facilitators
- FREE Teachers' Pack pre-workshop: exclusive interviews, photographs and production insights
- FREE Resource Pack post-workshop including lesson plans and extension activities
- Exclusive backstage tour of the Theatre
- Invitation to Teacher/OVNV liaison evenings
- Invitation to specialist INSET days led by theatre specialists
- Plus supplementary content, including:
- Access to exclusive interviews, backstage images and more
- Links with other Old Vic New Voices Schools
- Additional activities linked to the Theatre
